

Interested in { Architecture
City of Tokyo } ?

ARCHITECTALK!

by Jorge Almazán

“Whose Tokyo?
The City as a Collective Project”

2019/10/03, 18:30-19:30
Ex Noguchi Room

Keio University (Mita) South research building 3rd floor.

We launch a new talk series for the Architecture Open Day!

In ARCHITECTALK, architects and experts in the various fields of architecture give short talks in Mita campus.

This year, Jorge Almazán from the faculty of Science and Technology, Keio, will talk about architecture of Tokyo in the midst of rapid changes and the urban city design.

# Date and Venue

Thursday 03 October 2019, 18:30-19:30

Ex Noguchi Room

(South Research Building 3F, Mita Campus, Keio University)

# Language

English

# How to participate

This event is open to anyone. You can join without booking in advance. But if you'd like to reserve a seat, please make a booking.

# Jorge Almazán

<https://www.almazan.sd.keio.ac.jp/>

Graduated from the School of Architecture, Polytechnics University of Madrid in 2003. In 2001 he studied at the Technische Universität Darmstadt. He completed the Doctoral Degree at Tokyo Institute of Technology in 2007. In 2008 he held the position of Invited Professor of Architectural Design at the University of Seoul. Since April 2009 he teaches in Keio University, where he leads Studiolab: a university-based collaboration platform that works as architecture design studio and research laboratory.

# Contact

Keio University Art Center (Yu Homma)

cunary@art-c.keio.ac.jp